Painting the Streets - Truro and Provincetown

Instructor: Lisbeth Firmin

Monday - Friday

June 24 - 28

9am - 12pm

5 sessions

Locations: LOCATION TBA closer to workshop date. Class may meet on the first day, or in the event of rain at Edgewood Farm, 3 Edgewood Way Truro.

Please bring with you to class:

- Oils, acrylics, watercolor, or gouache (any medium is fine, as long as you are working with some kind of paint, using color and brushes)
- Palette knife and portable palette
- Medium – for water based medium watercolor blocks are good, or turpentine/gamsol for oils, etc.
- Brushes, be sure to bring BIG brushes
- Rags
- A portable easel or drawing board w/ portable chair
- Several Masonite (untampered if possible, very hard to find these days) or wood panels, canvas boards, or stretched canvasses – gessoed. Bring several supports of choice, students might be producing multiple studies and paintings each day
- Wear old clothes, and bring a hat with a brim

We're sorry, but you cannot put contaminated liquid down the drains! Please take home any solvents or paint mediums after your workshop. Rags are provided for clean up, and must be disposed of in the proper fire-safe bins if used. Thank you for your cooperation! ***
